

Are you thinking about playing college sports?

Many (maybe even most!) student-athletes do, but ...

- Do you know what “playing in college” means? or what it takes?
- Do you know when and how to start looking?
- Do you have questions about the college recruiting process?
- Would you benefit from some candid, expert advice?

If so, then please join our panel of experts for:

So, You Want To Play Sports In College:
a student-parent forum on playing at the next level

This special forum is designed for 7-12th graders and their parents, and it’s being presented by the Avon Booster Club on Thursday, November 10th, at 7:00 pm

in the AHS auditorium.

- Learn about the many ways you can play your sport in college
- Gather practical tips for starting & managing the recruiting process
- And gain insight from our panel of collegiate coaches and athletes on taking your game to the next level.

Questions? Contact Susan at srietano@gmail.com